February-March Hot Titles from Tandem Library Books

Welcome to a new edition of Hot Titles from Tandem Library Books! We are proud to present our recommendations for the best new fiction and nonfiction titles.

Hot Titles PreK-6 for February-March 2008

Highlights include:

- Monkey With a Tool Belt by Chris Monroe—Chico Bon Bon is a monkey who can fix absolutely anything, and he's never without his trusty tool belt. When a nasty organ-grinder captures Chico and attempts to hold him captive in a wooden box, Chico devises an ingenious plan to escape. Detailed illustrations and a funny story make this handy monkey a modern hero.
- One Hen: How One Small Loan Made a Big Difference by Katie Smith Milway—On the heels of last year's One Well: The Story of Water on Earth comes a true story about how an African boy used a modest loan to transform his family farm and village into a thriving success. An inspirational book with multicultural and global themes.
- Warrior's Refuge by Erin Hunter—The highly anticipated second graphic novel based on the Warriors novels. Feline heroes Greystripe and his kittypet pal, Millie, have joined together on a dangerous journey to reunite with Greystripe's clan.

Hot Titles 6-12 for February-March 2008

Highlights include:

- Airman by Eoin Colfer—A new stand-alone adventure novel set in the late nineteenth century, from the author of the popular Artemis Fowl series.
- Big Field by Mike Lupica—Mike Lupica delivers another action-packed sports novel, this time centering on a baseball player and his distant father.
- MySpace/OurPlanet: Change is Possible by Tom Anderson—Practical tips and ideas on how to reverse the trend of global warming from real-life MySpace users. Teen readers will find this an engaging call to action.
